One of the standout features of this flat is its prime location. Residents can enjoy the tranquillity of village life while being just a stone's throw away from excellent transport links. The A14 and the Guided Bus service ensure easy access to the vibrant city of Cambridge, as well as the historic towns of Ely and Peterborough, making it an ideal choice for commuters.

The flat operates on a recharge system for electricity, with water costs covered by a contribution, providing a straightforward approach to utility management. This property is perfect for individuals or couples seeking a peaceful yet connected lifestyle in a picturesque setting.

In summary, this one-bedroom flat in Over presents an excellent opportunity for those looking to enjoy the best of both worlds—convenience and countryside charm. Don't miss the chance to make this lovely flat your new home.
